The Revd. Alan Howe says: -

This will be a truly inspiring weekend and a time of fun for the whole church community. This is a 'sell your shirt and go' opportunity. It is the most exciting church weekend I have ever had a hand in planning. Don't miss it.

Parish Weekend 2009 July 3rd to 5th

Filled for overflowing

Addressing the challenge to invite God into our lives and through Him to transform our community

A great weekend of teaching, learning and enjoyment.

Main Speaker

Rev. Ian Parkinson

Director of NEW WINE north Vicar of Marple, Stockport

Speaker & Chaplain Profiles

Ian Parkinson

Our main speaker is Ian Parkinson shown here with his wife Nadine. Along with the running of a parish very similar to Chilwell they work together for New Wine North. Many of you will have heard him at Newark last year and know that Ian is a powerful speaker and a clear thinker. A team from Chilwell parish have visited Marple to share ideas and gain insights and having Ian as our speaker is a growing expression of a developing relationships between our parishes. Our theme of allowing God to transform us and using us to transform our community is one close to Ian's heart. He is thrilled to be coming and will be accompanied by a couple of his lay leadership team.

John Finney

Bishop John Finney will be conference chaplain and will speak at our Sunday main session and our Saturday early reflection. He will also offer a seminar on evangelism and be available for prayer. John was vicar of Aspley for nine years during a period of growth in numbers and in ministry in the power of the Holy Spirit. He became a local, then a national, evangelism advisor and his books (e.g. Finding Faith Today) have resourced and encouraged many people. As well as being an inspirational bishop and a clear thinker, John is also a gracious warm and inspiring man of God.
